“ I was one of Chris's Nurses when he would be hospitalized, I can still remember his smile and how he would mouth "yup" "nope", I remember how he would ask me with his computer "how was your day". We don't get often many patient that take the time to inquire about our lives but he was one of them. I could tell from the first moment I took care of him this man a good human. Chris your finally pain free and free of the limitations of this world, may you walk with the Lord and gained your reward of everlasting life. Rest easy Chris.

“ We have known Chris since he was a young boy. He was a good friend to my son and I. He was a great drummer when he was very young. I played music with Chris when he was still a teenager, holding his own with musicians three times his age. He was always a very nice guy, and we were proud to have him grow up with the kids in our household, hanging out and playing music. We Loved Chris very much. May Jesus walk him through Golden Gates. God bless hid Family and Friend with Peace and Healing. 🙏❤️🙏

“ He was such a special worker at the Pierre Part Store. He would go Out of his way to accommodate your needs. I remember seeing his condition deteriorating as he would drag a leg but he kept moving and a wonderful smile. Rest in peace my sweet friend ❤️

“ I met Chris while working at the Pierre Part Store, he was such a kind and understanding soul...once he became diagnosed with ALS and had to eventually be wheelchair bound, people would ask him what's wrong and such and he would say he got shot at a public place...he worked until he absolutely couldnt...and once he left the whole atmosphere changed...RIP!

Oh man, my heart hurts to see this. I knew Chris from working at the Pierre Part Store. And it just so happened that he knew my ex-husband from them being in school together as well. It broke my heart to hear about his diagnosis of ALS bc he was always such and outgoing man. My thoughts and prayers go out to his children and family. Rest easy angel and may you continue to take care of your family in eternal life like you did so well in your physical life. I love you and you will be greatly missed.
