

Cindy Lou Jones

November 7, 1966 - June 11, 2024

Obituary: Cindy Lou Jones

Cindy Lou Jones, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away on June 11, 2024, in Meraux, Louisiana, after a brave battle with cancer. She was born on November 7, 1966, in Jamestown, Tennessee, and was known for her deep love for her family and unwavering faith.

Cindy was a devoted stay-at-home grandmother who found immense joy in caring for her two grandchildren, Jace (4) and Layla (2). Her warm and nurturing spirit made her the heart of her family, and she treasured every moment spent with them. Despite battling cancer, she found strength and purpose in caring for them, showering them with hugs, cuddles, and endless love. Her grandchildren brought her immeasurable happiness and motivation throughout her journey.

In addition to her role as a devoted grandmother, Cindy was an avid crocheter who poured her creativity into her craft. Her handmade creations were treasured by her family and friends, reflecting her meticulous attention to detail and the warmth of her personality. One of Cindy's greatest passions was crocheting, where she poured her creativity into crafting beautiful pieces that became cherished keepsakes for her loved ones. Her skill and dedication to her craft were admired by all who knew her.

Throughout her battle with cancer, Cindy found solace in her faith and spent many hours in deep study of the Bible, drawing strength and comfort from her spiritual beliefs. Her resilience and unwavering faith were an inspiration to all who witnessed her journey. Cindy's faith was central to her life, guiding her actions and providing strength during difficult times. She ensured she was on the right path, living a life filled with love, kindness, and compassion for others. Her commitment to her faith and her family leaves behind a legacy of resilience and devotion that will be remembered fondly by all who knew her.

Her biggest accomplishments were making sure she was on the right path. She lived with her daughter (Victoria) and her grandchildren. Victoria was so grateful to be the one to be her caretakers during her cancer battle. She passed peacefully at home with her grandchildren and Victoria. She always made sure to hug, cuddle and love them.

She is survived by her mother Betsy Bryant, her daughter Victoria Grace Evans, daughter Ashley Pas-Bonilla & son James O'Howell. 2 Grandchildren Jace Edward Evans and Layla Grace Jade Evans. Her presence in their lives brought immense joy and her legacy of love will forever be cherished by her family and friends.

Cindy Lou Jones leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and resilience. She will be dearly missed by her loving husband, children, grandchildren, and a wide circle of family and friends whose lives she touched profoundly. Rest in peace, Cindy Lou Jones. Your love and light will continue to shine brightly in our hearts forever.
