“ This world for me will not be the same, even though we were distant over the years I always still had a spot for him in my heart. No one could ever fill, only his name was on this spot. Don was my friend, my love & my children's dad. He was loving and would make you fall to pieces with his jokes and sometimes make you cry because of his choices. He still was loved. To the family I will cherish every and all memories left by this sweet soul. It's hard now but just knowing he's in the greatest hands now makes it easier. Stay strong family and Don I'll see you again when God call me. Love you Gon

“ My heart and prayers go out to the Gonzales family at this time. Auntie Shirley you are the last of MeMe kids. I know your heart is heavy but you are loved by me. Jenn and Jeremy I am deeply saddened that you have loss your dad at this time. It's never an easy feeling to endure the loss of an important family member. I remember meeting Felicia at Phyllis house for New Years Eve and you were just a baby and Don chest was big as can be and his smile and those eyes would just pierce my soul with warmth when he found out he was going to be a dad and the baby would be a girl. He might have had some hang ups but he was a beautiful person to me inside and out. I use to tell him if I saw him and he needed money to let me know and I questions would be asked because I was reminded in the Bible about how what you do to the least you have done to Jesus. I never wanted him to feel different in my eyes. I went to visit with him in the hospital and held his hand and said a prayer out loud to let him know I was there. I will miss him a lot with his jokes and sense of humor. I love you Felicia, Jenn, Jeremy, and Aunt Shirley. May you always be comforted and feel the love of God at this time. Love Angela, Dee, and Maddie Dupuy ☐☐🙏
