“ So many memories of laughs, mid-night snack attacks!!! Who gets up at 2am to cook a whole meal? Pee Wee, that's who!! One thing you did was made sure you came to see me every few years. And Derrick(MooMoo) looks just like you!! And just as about as crazy as you too. You were a handyman like no other. If you didn't know how to fix something, you sure would figure it out or tear something up in the process!!! Man!!! I'm definitely going to miss you but I have enough joyful memories to last me a life time!! Love you always 💙
