In Loving Memory of Mr. Floyd Bailey

Mr. Floyd Bailey entered this world on April 25, 1950, born to the late Robert Bailey and Frances White in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. He received his formal education in the Bay St. Louis Mississippi school system. Floyd dedicated many years of his life to employment at the Tire Shack, where he eventually retired.

Outside of his professional life, Floyd found joy in spending leisure time with friends, dancing, playing pool, and sharing drinks. His generous spirit led him to love helping people, and he never encountered a stranger.

On November 8, 2023, Floyd Bailey departed this life. He is preceded in death by his wife, Clementine Bailey, father Robert Bailey, mother Frances White, grandmother Gertrude Jones, grandfather Albert Jones, sisters Linda and Glenda Bailey, Mawan White, Marguerite Williams, Rose White, brother Joseph White, Sheppard White, Alvin White (Twin), Samuel White, Loyd Bailey, and grandson Rusty Coleman.

Left to cherish his memory are two daughters and one son: Patricia Ann Hills, Floyd Duke Coleman, Janice Coleman Barnett, and son-in-law Barnard Barnett. Floyd is also remembered by his grandchildren Reshard Flugence, Dominick Flugence, Alex Flugence Jr., Russell Flugence, Matthew Flugence, Ashanti Sade Coleman, Precious Coleman, Coco Coleman, Diamond Coleman, Simba Coleman, and great-grandchildren Deejanay Jones, Malaysia Flugence, Reshard Flugence, Ty'Lynn Flugence, Ukachi Flugence.

He is survived by three sisters: Alberta Thomas, Victoria Daniels, Marion Hoggett, and two brothers: Robert White (wife Eloda White) and Johnny Allen. Floyd leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish the impact he had on their lives.
