Obituary

He loved deeply and fought passionately

He LIVED with no regrets

On February 21, 2023, Frederick Godofredo Balbon, fought his last battle and passed away in Slidell, Louisiana. He grew up in Meraux, Louisiana, and later settled in Pearl River. He had the greatest love for music and expressed it effortlessly with his singing and guitar playing. His greatest traits are his passion for his family and love for animals. He was intimidating with his burly physique; however, his wide smile and infectious laugh would easily lighten your heart. Looking at him you couldn't tell he was the most generous guy. If he had one dollar left to his name, he would give it willingly. That's why his nickname is Pineapple. Because he is so sweet.

He was a musician and had a keen ear. He taught himself how to play the clarinet, guitar, and piano. He was a veteran and served 4 years with the army. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle. His other trades are pipe fitter, artist, bouncer, cargo inspector, and mechanic. He enjoyed his family. Whether it is the heart to heart talks with his nephews and nieces or countless facetime chats. There is no denying it. His number one goal was to stay connected.

He is also survived by his significant other of 17 years Melanie Smith, and their beloved children Crystal Rose Dame (Balbon), Joshua Smith, and Jacqueline Silva. He is also survived by Dolores Balbon (mom), His siblings Nelson (Shirley) Balbon, Susan (Dexter) Bigting, Calixtro (Paula) Balbon , Anthony (Lisa) Balbon, Felicidad (Andy) Balbon, Florencia (Clayton) Corne, Annette Dayot, Danny Dayot (Linda), Michele Dayot, and his loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Preceded by his death are, Frederick P. Balbon,(dad), Felicidad Hontiveros (grandma),Olivia Yvonne Dayot Arcell (sister), Judy Cortes (sister), and Olivia Tirol (biological mom).

Open viewing is at New Orleans Funeral at 12-1 on Thursday, March 2. Freddy will be cremated and memorial services will be held at a later date at Camp Villere pending arrangements.
