“Where to begin? Gary was kind, gentle, an amazing listener and a dedicated husband and dad and grandpa. He was well-respected by co-workers and rightfully so. I knew him through his wife Pam and while it's been many years, it seems like yesterday. He was the kind of person you wished was your big brother or uncle. I know he wasn't perfect (none of us are) but he was a true gentleman and humble servant of a benevolent power. I feel grateful to have known him. Pam, please know you and Gary are in my heart and though we aren't in touch, you two are people whom I'll never regret meeting. I'm grateful for our paths crossing. One more thing: Gary's laugh was gravelly and definitely contagious and never at someone else's expense.
