“ Adele, while I didn't get the pleasure to meet your Daddy directly? I get to meet him in your spirit, your heart, your strength, your kindness, your work ethic, your boldness, your courage, your “everyone can have a seat by me that needs one” soul. I get to know him through the incredible woman, daughter, mother, friend, every role you will ever have, daughter he raised. Prayers for peace and comfort that surpasses any understanding. And? You can always sit with me! I love you friend!

“ The memory I cherish most with my dad, and really everyone that knows it. I think I was maybe 4 or 5 years old. My dad brought a tree that was way too big for our house. So dad started cutting this tree, and by the time he was done cutting this tree I was taller than the tree at best 5. Lollllllllll, my mom was so mad and still gets mad at this to this day.

I can remember so many moments when Adele was just about 3yrs.old she had been diagnosed with asthma, I guess she heard us say all the time that you could not smoke around her. So her didn't stop, so that little sweet babygirl took it upon herself to make sure he did not smoke around her. She took a whole pack of cigarettes and destroyed them. I laughed so hard I couldn't stop. There are so many I can't remember them all. He was always so proud of her and sister LaTonya. Farewell angel rest in peace.
