Hey Ma, you've finally earned your wings and I know you're soaring. The highest honor I could've ever received was being your son. Through the tough times and the pleasant times it was bliss. I knew one day we'd be apart, but I'd be lying if I said I was ready for you to say goodbye Ma. Looking back at all the memories you blessed us with comforts my ailing heart and puts me at ease knowing you were happy. You made sure to leave a lasting impression upon everyone you came in contact with with your warm spirit and kind heart. I wouldn't be telling you the truth if I said I wasn't lost without you and although we'll meet again; until that time comes not a day will go by where I won't think of you. I still remember your words of encouragement and your words of affirmations you would lend me when I sought advice and those are the precious keepsakes I will use to inspire myself and those around me. I love you Ma and thank you so much for being you. I love you Ma and Semper Fi.
