“ i met Lori in Jerome,Az in 1986 and we became instant friends. I brought her to New Orleans in September and she never left. She had found her place. Boy did we have fun together, living and working in the Quarter. She at Masperos and me at Coop's. We would meet at the Blacksmith's Shop and spend the rest of the night with Albert,Lucky,and Miss Lilly playing our favorite old love songs. She lived in my house by the track for 18 years even post Katrina, till she got a house up in the 9th ward. Lori, I love you always and will miss you.
