“ She was my grand by marriage to Tish Rader, during them times I was in the family and after we had got divorced from there granddaughter Tish I still stayed close to the family trued helping with there family at times being a deputy for the sheriff dept and just having good times and we had taken mawmaw in after kartrina. Helping mawmaw with property during kartrina and helping gather things she had wanted and even brought mawmaw to the bank to selvage money that was in the safety deposit box. But you know she was a tough woman didn't take no shit I can tell tryouts that. I love her dearly she will be missed she was a big part of my life and big help with Johnny growing up.
