In Loving Memory of Michael Craig Hankins

January 25, 1964 – March 27, 2025

Known lovingly as Craig

Dear son, brother, uncle, and friend to many

Michael Craig Hankins, lovingly known as Craig, passed away at his home in New Orleans, Louisiana on March 27, 2025. Born on January 25, 1964, in Columbus Mississippi, Craig's life was a reflection of kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith. Craig is preceded in death by his parents, Jimmy Dale Hankins and Peggy Jean Hankins, as well as his stepmother, Carolyn Hankins.

He is survived by five beloved siblings: Steve and his wife Joann, Wayne and his wife Beth, Shane and his wife Vickey, Gerald and his wife Judy, and Jerrolyn and her husband Robert. Craig was a devoted uncle to ten nieces and nephews: Michael, Gloria Ann, Hunter, Austin, Jackson, Anna Claire, Jack, Kristin, Thomas, and Seth. He also leaves behind a large and loving extended family of cousins, aunts, and uncles, along with a cherished community of friends and chosen family who were touched by his generosity and warmth.

To know Craig was to be welcomed into a heart that never turned anyone away. He was a loving brother, a loyal friend, and a servant-hearted soul who dedicated his life to uplifting others. With open arms and an open home, Craig lived out the Gospel through quiet, steady acts of service and love. He strived daily to reflect the life and teachings of Jesus, advocating for the overlooked and creating a place of belonging for all. He will be deeply missed, but his legacy of love, faith, and compassion will live on in every life he touched. Memorial and service details will be announced and updated soon.
