“ I am so sorry to hear that Michael has passed. We were friends in the late 70's and 80's when he lived in Cocoa Beach. He had a brilliant mind but was very down to earth and had a good sense of humor. He could talk to anyone about any subject in detail. He was an amazing basketball player, making the all conference team in his sophomore and junior years in high school. Mike lead the conference in scoring for the first half of his junior season until he hurt his back. Mike loved music. We learned the guitar and bass together. I remember Mike singing Bob Dylan songs on his uke on the beach. He was also an avid surfer and would surf anytime the waves were good. My deepest sympathies & prayers to the Thoman family. Sincerely, Pat Hansen
