“ I grew up with Phil, playing golf, games, football, kicking field goals at Adams, and Nerf football in the street at night with his brother Don and our friend Brian and others. I'll never forget the 4-98's. It was the best of times. I know he would smile at the thought. He was, after all, the "young man on the roof." I can't count all the times we played golf together, both just for fun and in tournaments. We played all over New Orleans and always had a great time. So sorry to hear this news. Even though I have not talked to him in years, I will miss him. We shared our childhood and it was awesome. My deepest condolences to Don and all the family.

“ I always thought you were an awesome, fun kid at St. Philip. Rest in peace and maybe Heaven has a fishing hole for you. Rhonda Mattingly-Waldrep

Phil made the best crayfish and was a fun coworker and very respectful and considerate. Despite his pain he always helped me and was a gentleman. I know he loved his mom and family and loved ones deeply. My deepest sympathy to all.
