“ My name is Norine. I am just learning of Howard's passing. I am shocked and saddened. I met Howard many years ago when he lived in Atlanta. What a great friend he was to me. Always encouraging and super positive. Howard was very wise and I think often about our conversations and how insightful he was. I remember spending time with him and his three beautiful daughters when they would visit Atlanta. I send my sincere condolences to them and his entire family. Howard was often remembered by me and will continue to be remembered and cherished. May the LORD continue to surround your family with love and comfort.

I met Seth , when he returned to MSY .. we worked on the Ramp together under Northwest Airlines. It saddened my heart , unfortunately I learned of his passing a year later. Wish I could have been there for him.
