

Sylvia Loubat Wartberg

June 6, 1933 - August 29, 2025

Sylvia Loubat Wartberg, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on August 29, 2025, in Slidell, Louisiana, at the age of 92.

Born on June 6, 1933, in New Orleans to Lester Sr. and Anita Loubat, Sylvia lived a life rooted in family, faith, and community. She was predeceased by her husband, Roland L. Wartberg Jr., her son, Stephen C. Wartberg, and her brother, Lester Loubat.

Sylvia is survived by her devoted son, Roland L. Wartberg III, and her cherished grandchildren, Taylor L. Wartberg, Corey Chagnard, and Jennifer Hurley. Her legacy continues through her three great-granddaughters, Sydney Hurley, Addison Chagnard, and Alexis Hurley, who were the joy of her later years.

A lifelong New Orleanian at heart, Sylvia carried the spirit of her hometown wherever she went. She was a passionate and faithful fan of the New Orleans Saints, never missing a chance to cheer for her team. Above all, she was a loving mother and grandmother whose kindness, warmth, and laughter will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A private service will be held at a later date.

New Orleans Funeral and Cremation Service
"Celebrating Life"

Tribute Wall

TF

“ I was so saddened to hear of Miss Sylvia's passing. She was always, always so loving and kind to me . I grew up around the corner from them when they lived on Burke. I loved spending time with her . She always had the "hifi" playing some hits. She was also cooking up something good to eat. I was always welcome in her home. She has never left my mind in all of the 50 years since I last saw her. I love you Miss Sylvia and you have and will always live in my heart! My deepest condolences to her family.

Terry Fehn - September 10, 2025 at 10:28 PM

GB

“ I wish I could have visited her before she passed. She was always so nice to us kids and so beautiful. I am so sure she is with her family in heaven having a grand reunion! God bless her. She will never be forgotten

Gina Bulleman - September 08, 2025 at 06:16 PM