He was the best sponsor I ever had. I'm so sad to see what happened. I saw him on a YouTube video working for a wine company and I could tell he had relapsed.

“ While we only met once, my wife and I will remember you for your incredible hospitality and warmth. We made our acquaintance through a mutual friend and from the first minute we met we understood what an amazing person you were. Our time in NOLA wouldn't have been the same without you. We're so sorry you had to leave. May you be at peace and please know your memory will be eternal. Your friends Frank&Athena

Thank you for your kind words, he was a genuinely kind person and always went out of his way for everyone. Such a loss.

“ "Little" Bill will always be cherished in our hearts as long as we live. I was one of the "family" of friends he adopted back in our young days in Burbank. He and Judy and Peggy lived in the same apartment complex as me and we clicked right away. We just reconnected after over 35 years of being apart and an hour wasn't long enough. My thoughts and heart and prayers are with Judy and his family.

I met Bill close to 30 years ago. I remember going to the Sheryl Crow concert together and every time I hear a song from her you pop back in my head. I am so sad to here of your passing. Rest in peace Billy.
